

Contents—Detailed

Table of Cases	xv
Introduction	1
 PART 1. NORM, INSTITUTION, AND ORDER
1. On Normative Order	11
1.1 Introduction	11
1.2 On Institutional Facts	11
1.3 The Normative	14
1.4 Normative Order	16
1.5 On Conventions: Informal Practices	19
1.6 Conclusion	20
2. On Institutional Order	21
2.1 Introduction	21
2.2 Beyond Informality	22
2.3 Expressly Articulated Norms—'Rules'	24
2.4 The Practical Force of Rules: 'Exclusion' or 'Entrenchment'?	26
2.5 Discretion: Values and Principles	28
2.6 Standards in Rules	30
2.7 Institution and Order	31
2.8 Institutions of Positive Law: Preliminary Remarks	33
2.9 Institutional Agencies	34
3. Law and the Constitutional State	39
3.1 Introduction	39
3.2 States	39
3.3 Constitutions	45
3.4 Institutions of Public Law	49
3.5 Civil Society and the State: Introduction	58
3.6 Conclusion: Law as Institutional Normative Order	59
4. A Problem: Rules or Habits?	61
4.1 Introduction	61
4.2 Habit and Rule Reconsidered	62
4.3 Habits about Rules	68
4.4 Mind the Gap!	70

5. On Persons

- 5.1 Introduction
- 5.2 What is a Person?
- 5.3 The Capacities of Persons: Passive Capacity
- 5.4 The Capacities of Persons: Active Capacity in General
- 5.5 Capacity Responsibility
- 5.6 Transactional Capacity
- 5.7 On the Capacities of Corporations
- 5.8 Status

6. Wrongs and Duties

- 6.1 Introduction
- 6.2 Rethinking the Normative
- 6.3 Differentiating Wrong and Not-Wrong
- 6.4 Of Duties
- 6.5 Of Obligations and The Obligatory

7. Legal Positions and Relations: Rights and Obligations

- 7.1 Introduction
- 7.2 The 'Law of Obligations'
- 7.3 Rights in General and in Regard to Conduct
- 7.4 Rights in Regard to States of Being and States of Affairs

8. Legal Relations and Things: Property

- 8.1 Introduction
- 8.2 Things and Rights to Them
- 8.3 Real Rights—Acquisition and Title
- 8.4 Real Rights—their Content
- 8.5 Some Observations on Intellectual Property Rights
- 8.6 Splitting Ownership: The Trust
- 8.7 Conclusion

9. Legal Powers and Validity

- 9.1 Introduction
- 9.2 Law as Enabling
- 9.3 Validity
- 9.4 Defeasibility
- 9.5 Immunity

10. Powers and Public Law: Law and Politics	171
10.1 Introduction	171
10.2 Public Powers	172
10.3 Differentiating Public Law	174
10.4 Public Law and Politics	176
10.5 The Political Value of Judicial Impartiality	180
10.6 Political Power above Law?	182
11. Constraints on Power: Fundamental Rights	187
11.1 Introduction	187
11.2 Rights as Possible Limits on Government	190
11.3 Institutionalization of Rights	195
11.4 Problems about Rights: Who is to Judge?	201
12. Criminal Law and Civil Society: Law and Morality	207
12.1 Introduction	207
12.2 Crimes and Wrongs	209
12.3 Legal Moralism	215
12.4 Corporate Crimes	218
12.5 Conclusion	221
13. Private Law and Civil Society: Law and Economy	223
13.1 Introduction	223
13.2 Private Law and Private Life	224
13.3 Private Law and Commerce	225
13.4 Private Law and Economy	226
13.5 Property and Obligations: the Institutional Analysis	230
13.6 Law, Economy, and Information	234
13.7 Conclusion	238

PART 4. LAW, MORALITY, AND METHODOLOGY

14. Positive Law and Moral Autonomy	243
14.1 Introduction	243
14.2 Explaining the Positive Character of Law	244
14.3 Moral Controversy and Legal Decision	246
14.4 Autonomy in Morality	249
14.5 Of Law: Institutionality, Authoritativeness, Heteronomy	252

- 14.6 Mitigating the Contrast: Relative Heteronomy of Law
- 14.7 Doubting the Contrast: Interpretation and Argumentation in Law

- 15. On Law and Justice
  - 15.1 Introduction
  - 15.2 Civil Liberty and Critical Morality
  - 15.3 Religion, Liberty, and Law
  - 15.4 Law, Justice, and the Positivization of Human Rights
  - 15.5 Law and its Implicit Pretension to Justice
  - 15.6 Some Observations on 'Positivism' and 'Natural Law'

- 16. Law and Values: Reflections on Method
  - 16.1 Introduction
  - 16.2 Definition, Conventionalism, and the 'Semantic Sting'
  - 16.3 Analytical Explanation and Legal Pluralism
  - 16.4 Legal Knowledge and Institutional Facts
  - 16.5 Law, State, Civil Society—'Focal Meaning' and 'Constructive Interpretation'
  - 16.6 'Mind the Gap!'—Again
  - 16.7 Facile Eclecticism?
  - 16.8 Final Conclusions
  - 16.9 Coda

- Index of Names*
- Subject Index*